Introduction

People generally agree that a man called Jesus Christ ☸PEACE BE/ UPON HIM☹ did exist, but not all are in agreement that his preachings are found in one form of interpretation today. The very existence of different churches and in particular the different Bible versions are in themselves proof that Jesus's ☸PEACE BE/ UPON HIM☹ message has moved away from its original form of interpretation. The question now remains: Where is this message and with whom is it preserved and by whom is it practised upon today?

This booklet is particularly aimed at assisting the genuine seekers of truth to find the original teachings of Jesus ☸PEACE BE/ UPON HIM☹. We present to them a study of certain 'practices in the Bible', thus enabling them to reflect on those who practise them. Thus it should follow that these practising individuals are the hallmark of the 'true Christianity'. It is they who are the inheritors of the actual preachings of Jesus ☸PEACE BE/ UPON HIM☹. But, such claims can only be judged through authentic references from the Bible. A presentation of these practices should enable you to trace the whereabouts of Jesus's ☸PEACE BE/ UPON HIM☹ true faith in this day. Ultimately, what counts is who best practises on the Bible.

In fact, Bible readers today tend to overlook these practices within the Bible. It is these very practices of Jesus ☸PEACE BE/ UPON HIM☹ which ought to have formed the most important part of the Christian faith today.

1. The Concept of God in the Bible

‘God’ in the Holy Bible refers to the same One and only Creator who Alone has the right to be worshipped:

In the New Testament

Matthew 4:10

“...Worship the Lord thy God, and Him only shalt thou serve”.

Mark 12:29

Jesus  said; “Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God is one God”.

In the Old Testament

Isaiah 44:6

“I am the first and I am the last; besides Me there is no god”.

Isaiah 45:21-23

“And there is no other god besides Me, a righteous God and a saviour; there is none besides Me. Turn to Me and be saved...To Me every knee shall bow.

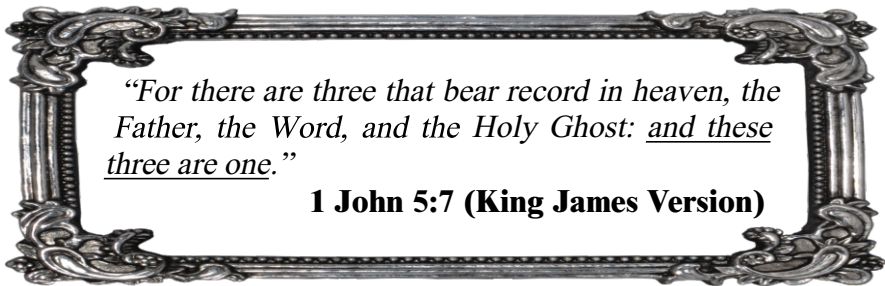

Comment

The concept of God as is plainly stated in the above verses of the Bible is the true and real description of God, as was preached by Jesus, Moses and others  in their first commandments. Such a plain description of God is not found in most of Christianity today. The trinity concept of God, however, defeats the plain description of God, which furthers God's description to a second and a third element, thus breaking the uniqueness nature of the plain One and Only God.

From the above Biblical verses it is quite clear that God is One and only. Therefore, no heavenly body nor any creation can be God since God is One and Alone.

'Trinity' in the Bible

There is only one verse in the Bible which clearly proves the belief of trinity. This verse however has been deleted from the text of the NIV¹ and the RSV² Bibles, and a footnote is added stating that this verse did not exist in the earlier Greek manuscripts of the Bible earlier than the sixteenth century. The deleted verse reads as follows:

“For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one.”

1 John 5:7 (King James Version)

² Revised Standard Version

More questions than answers!

- If God was part of the trinity, then why did He not claim so in the Old Testament?
- Did Jesus ☩^{PEACE BE UPON HIM} ever make a statement that he is second of the trinity? Likewise, did the 'Holy Ghost' ever proclaim this statement?
- If the trinity forms part of the fundamental teachings of faith, then why is there no mention of this word 'trinity' elsewhere in the entire Bible?
- If trinity is a belief that is so much emphasised upon, why then did this belief not appear before the time of Jesus ☩^{PEACE BE UPON HIM}?
- If Jesus Christ ☩^{PEACE BE UPON HIM} had died for the sins of people, then who died for the sins of those who lived before the time of Jesus ☩^{PEACE BE UPON HIM}.

A scanned copy from the NIV appears below:

1 JOHN 5:7

water and blood. And it is the Spirit who testifies, because the Spirit is the truth.^a ⁷For there are three^b that testify: ⁸the^k Spirit, the water and the blood; and the three are in agreement. ⁹We accept man's testimony,^c but God's testimony is greater because it is the testimony of God,^d which he has given about his Son. ¹⁰Anyone who believes in the Son of God has this testimony in his heart.^e Anyone who does not believe God has made him out to be a liar,^f because he has not believed the testimony God has given about his Son. ¹¹And this is the testimony: God has given us eternal life, and this life is in his Son.^g ¹²He who has the Son has life; he who does not have the Son of God does not have life.^h

Concluding Remarks

¹³I write these things to you who believe in the name of the Son of Godⁱ so that you may know that you have eternal life.^j ¹⁴This is the confidence^k we have in approaching God: that if we ask anything according to his will, he hears us.^l ¹⁵And if we know that he hears us – whatever we ask – we know^m that we have what we asked of him.

¹⁶If anyone sees his brother commit a sin that does not lead to death, he should pray and God will give him life.ⁿ I refer to those whose sin does not lead to death. There is a sin that leads to death.^o I am not saying that he should pray about that.^p ¹⁷All wrongdoing is sin,^q and there is sin that does not lead to death.^r

¹⁸We know that anyone born of God does not continue to sin; the one who was born of God keeps him safe, and the evil one cannot harm him.^s ¹⁹We know that we are children of God,^t and that the whole world is under the control of the evil one.^u ²⁰We know also that the Son of God has come and has given us understanding,^v so that we may know him who is true.^w And we are in him who is true – even in his Son Jesus Christ. He is the true God and eternal life.^x

²¹Dear children, keep yourselves from idols.^y

5:21 ^z1Co 10:14; 1 Th 1:9

^{k7,8} Late manuscripts of the Vulgate testify in heaven: the Father, the Word and the Holy Spirit, and these three are one. ⁸ And there are three that testify on earth: the (not found in any Greek manuscript before the sixteenth century)

The term ‘Father’ in the Bible was also ‘figurative expression’ used by Jesus ﷺ in regard to His respect and closeness to God as it is used for the Father in the children’s prayer in the following words; ‘Our Father who art in Heaven...’

Final Comment on the One and Only God³

In any event, there is not a single place in the entire Bible where Jesus ﷺ said; “I am God” or “Worship me”. If such a belief was a fundamental of Christianity, it would have been clearly mentioned and emphasized in the Bible.

Therefore one should ponder:

*What has happened to the plain belief in One God today?
Why is it not adhered to today?
And who believes in it today?*

³ Read our book, ‘Answers in the Light of the Quran’.

‘Son of God?’

The word ‘son of God’ in the Bible cannot mean the real son of God, as the term is also used in the Bible for Adam, David, Ephraim and others .

Jeremiah 31:9

“....and Ephraim is my “First Born.””

Luke3:38

“Which was the son of Enos, which was the son of Seth, which was the son of Adam, which was the son of God.””

Romans: 8:14

“For as many as led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God.”

Psalms 2:7

“Thou (O David) art my son; this day have I (God) begotten thee”.

Comment

The term ‘son of God’ was actually an error of interpretation from the Greek translation. The translators may have not meant it literally as understood today, but rather ‘close servant of God’. If the word ‘son of God’ really implied the real son of God, then David  too would have been rightfully deserving of being called the begotten son of God. Besides, he would also have been well known by all as the real begotten son of God’.

Similarly, the term ‘Children of God’ in the Bible was also used by others such as John, as is proven in the following verses:

Verse 19: “We know that we are the children of God...”.

Verse 20: “We know also that the Son of God has come...”
and has given us understanding”.

John 5:19-20

2. Prostration during worship in the Bible

Jesus ☞^{PEACE BE UPON HIM} has been described in the Gospels as prostrating during prayer by resting his face onto the ground, as was commonly practised by Moses, Abraham, David and others ☞^{PEACE BE UPON THEM}. Here is proof:

1. Jesus ☞^{PEACE BE UPON HIM} fell on his face in prayer

Matthew 26:39

“And going a little further he (Jesus) fell on his face and prayed, ‘My Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from me; nevertheless, not as I will, but as thou wilt’.

2. Abraham ☞^{PEACE BE UPON HIM} fell on his face in prayer

Genesis 17:3

“And Abraham fell on his face...”

3. Moses and Aaron ☞^{PEACE BE UPON THEM} fell on their faces in prayer

Numbers 20:6

“And Moses and Aaron went from the presence of the assembly unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and they fell upon their faces”.

4. Elijah ☞^{PEACE BE UPON HIM} fell on his face in prayer

1 Kings 18:42

“And Elijah went up to the top of Carmel; and he cast himself down upon the earth, and put his face between his knees”.

5. Joshua fell on his face in prayer

Joshua 5:14

“...and Joshua fell on his face to the earth, and did worship and...”.

Comment:

The word ‘worship’ above clearly shows that Joshua’s  falling to the ground was not for any other reason, instead it was done purely for the worship of the One God.

6. 1 Samuel 20:41

(David  fell on his face in prayer)

“David arose out of a place toward the south, and fell on his face to the ground, and bowed himself three times...”.

Further references of prostration in prayer in the Bible:-

- Numbers 16:4
- Numbers 16:22
- Joshua 7:6
- Isaiah 45:23

Comment:

The manner of prostration done by all the prophets by putting the face between the knees clearly shows the true way of prostration as illustrated below:

Comment

Some Christians today kneel down, clasping their hands, in a posture that cannot be ascribed to Jesus ☩PEACE BE/UPON HIM☩. The method of prostration performed by Jesus ☩PEACE BE/UPON HIM☩, that of resting the face on the ground, was the mode of prayer of all the prophets before him ☩PEACE BE/UPON HIM☩.

Therefore one should ponder:

What has happened to this practice of prostrating in worship?

Why is it not practised today?

Who has maintained this practice today?

3. Charity to the Poor, a Command in the Bible

Charity is a commandment of the Bible, which was to be given to the poor and needy in particular, and not merely taken as a tithe (tax) for the church.

1. Charity commanded to Moses

Deuteronomy 15:11

“...Therefore I command thee (Moses), saying, open thine hand wide unto thy brother, to thy poor, and to thy needy, in thy land”.

Deuteronomy 14:22

You shall tithe all the yield of your seed, which comes forth from the field year by year”.

Comment:

‘Tithe’ is a tenth of the annual produce of land or labour, which is fixed and is to be given to the poor yearly. (Refer to Oxford Dictionary)

2. Jesus advises charity

Mathew 6:3-4

Jesus  said; “But when thou doest alms, let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth; That thine alms may be in secret; and thy father which seeth in secret Himself shall reward thy openly”.

Therefore one should ponder:

What has happened to this practice of Charity?

Why is it not practised today?

And who has maintained this practice today?

4. Fasting in the Bible

According to the New Testament Jesus ☞^{PEACE BE UPON HIM} is reported to have fasted. Fasting was also practised by the prophets of God before Jesus ☞^{PEACE BE UPON HIM}.

Matthews 4:2

“And he (Jesus) fasted forty days and forty nights and afterwards he was hungry”.

Matthews 17:21

Jesus ☞^{PEACE BE UPON HIM} said: “Howbeit this kind goeth not out but by prayer and fasting.”

1 Samuel 7:6

“And they gathered together to Mizpeh, and drew water, and poured it out before the Lord, and fasted on that day”.

Further references of fasting in the Bible:

- Act 13:2-3
- Exodus 34:28
- Matthew 6:16-18

Therefore one should ponder:

What has happened to this practice of fasting?

Why is it not practised today?

And who has maintained this practice today?

5. Ablution (washing before worship) in the Bible

Both the Old and New Testaments of the Bible speak of purification of the body before worship, which was a practice of Jesus PEACE BE UPON HIM, as well as all the prophets of God before him. Ablution means purification of the body before worship by washing some parts of the body like hands, face, feet and so forth.

1. Moses and Aaron PEACE BE UPON THEM purified themselves before prayer by washing their hands and feet.

Exodus 40:30-31

“And he set the laver between the tent of meeting and the altar, and put water in it for washing, with which Moses and Aaron and his sons washed their hands and their feet.... as the Lord commanded Moses.”

Comment

The word ‘Commanded’ in the above verse proves that Moses and Aaron PEACE BE UPON THEM practised ablution not merely because they felt like it, but rather because it was commanded to them by God.

2. David PEACE BE UPON HIM has been recorded to have washed before prayer

2 Samuel 12:20;

“Then David arose from the earth, and washed, and anointed himself, and changed his clothes; and he went into the house of the Lord, and worshipped...”.

Acts 21:26

“Then Paul took the men, and the next day he purified himself with them and went into the temple”.

Comment

Paul, a follower of Jesus ☩^{PEACE BE UPON HIM}☩, also practised ablution according to the Acts as mentioned above. Paul's act of purifying himself before entering the Temple shows that his purification was specifically for the purpose of worship, and not for any other reason. Jesus ☩^{PEACE BE UPON HIM}☩ also practised ablution before prayer following the practise of prophets before him:

Matthew 5: 17-18

‘Think not that I have come to abolish the law and the (way of the) prophets; I have come not to abolish them but to fulfil them’.

Therefore one should ponder:

What has happened to this practice of washing before prayer?

Why is it not practised today?

And who has maintained this practice today?

6. Circumcision in the Bible

Circumcision was practised by Jesus ☞PEACE BE UPON HIM☞, the practice going right back to Abraham ☞PEACE BE UPON HIM☞ according to the Bible, a command which was to be upheld forever. Jesus ☞PEACE BE UPON HIM☞ himself was circumcised according to the Bible.

Luke 2:21

“And the end of eight days, when he was circumcised, he was called Jesus, the name given by the angel before he was conceived in the womb”.

Genesis Chapter 17:9

“As for you (Abraham), shall keep my covenant, you and your descendants after you throughout their generations”.

Comment

This proves that God’s command of circumcision was to be upheld forever.

Genesis Chapter 17:10

“This is my covenant, which you shall keep, between me and you and your descendants after you: Every male among you shall be circumcised.”

Comment

This verse indicates recognition of the true descendents of Abraham ☞PEACE BE UPON HIM☞ who today still practice circumcision.

Genesis Chapter 17:11

“You shall be circumcised in the flesh of your foreskins and it shall be a sign of the covenant between me and you.”

Comment

These words, 'circumcision in the flesh of your foreskins', refutes Paul's misinterpretation of circumcision, which shall be explained later.

Genesis Chapter 17:12

"He that is eight days old among you shall be circumcised..."

Comment

There is no ambiguity about circumcision in the above verses; 'circumcision in the flesh of your foreskin' is very clear out. Jesus's  circumcision on the eighth day, as quoted at the beginning, was a fulfilment of this command given to Abraham  forever. Therefore the true inheritors of Jesus and Abraham  can truly be identified through circumcision.

Question

Who then dared to abolish the law of circumcision?

Answer

Today, most Christians are not circumcised because of Paul's misinterpretation. He claimed that circumcision was the circumcision of the heart. To be circumcised however, was to be part of Jesus's  way. Proof of the misinterpreted statement by Paul in the Bible is as follows:

Romans 2:29

Paul, in his letter to the Romans wrote:

"He is a Jew who is one inwardly, and real circumcision is a matter of the heart, spiritual and not literal".

Galatians 5:2

In his letter to the Galatians, Paul wrote:

"Now I, Paul say to you that if you receive circumcision, Christ will be of no advantage to you".

Comment

Jesus ☪^{PEACE BE UPON HIM} was neither circumcised by the heart nor did he say anything about the circumcision of the heart; he kept the ‘everlasting covenant’ and was circumcised by the flesh.

Therefore one should ponder:

What has happened to this practice of circumcision?

Why is it not practised today?

And who has maintained this practice today?

7. Pork prohibited in the Bible

Matthew 5:17-18

Jesus ☞PEACE BE
UPON HIM☞ has said: “Think not that I have come to abolish the law and (the way of) the prophets; I have come not to abolish them but to fulfil them”. Thus, Jesus ☞PEACE BE UPON HIM☞ followed the laws of Moses ☞PEACE BE UPON HIM☞, by doing so, he also did not eat pork.

Leviticus 11: 7-8

“And the swine, because it parts the hoof and is cloven- footed but does not chew the cud, is unclean to you. Of their flesh you shall not eat, and their carcasses you shall not touch; they are unclean to you”.

Deuteronomy 14:8

“And the swine, because it divideth the hoof, yet cheweth not the cud, it is unclean to you: ye shall not eat of their flesh, nor touch their dead carcass”.

Therefore one should ponder:

What has happened to this practise of abstaining from pork?

Why is it not practised today?

And who has maintained this practice today?

8. Alcohol prohibited in the Bible

Numbers 6:1-4 (Old Testament)

God said to Moses : “He shall separate himself from wine and strong drink; he shall drink no vinegar made from wine or strong drink...”.

Proverbs 20:1 (Old Testament)

“Wine is a mocker, strong drink is raging: and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise”.

Romans 14:21 (New Testament)

“It is good neither to eat flesh, nor to drink wine...”.

Luke 1:15 (New Testament)

“For he shall be great in the sight of the Lord, and shall drink neither wine nor strong drink.”

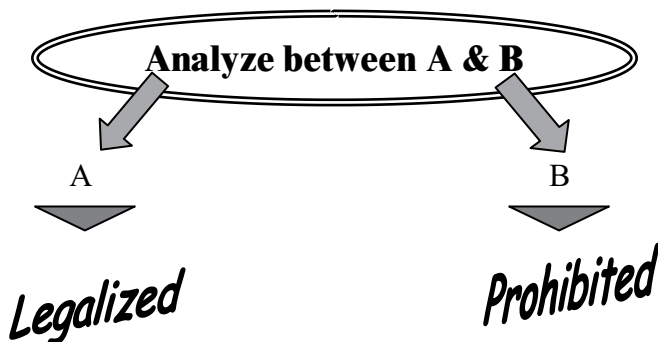

Comment

The prohibition of alcohol in the above verses of the Old and New Testament are very clear. On the other hand, liquor also seems to have been legalized according to statements in other Gospels. In that case, one needs to first analyse the verses of legalization and prohibition of liquor in the Bible, which follows:

Liquor in the Bible- Legalized or Prohibited ?

*You Analyze !
You be the judge !*

In the New Testament

In the New Testament

1 Timothy 5:23

Drink no longer water, but use a little wine for thy stomach's sake and thine often infirmities.

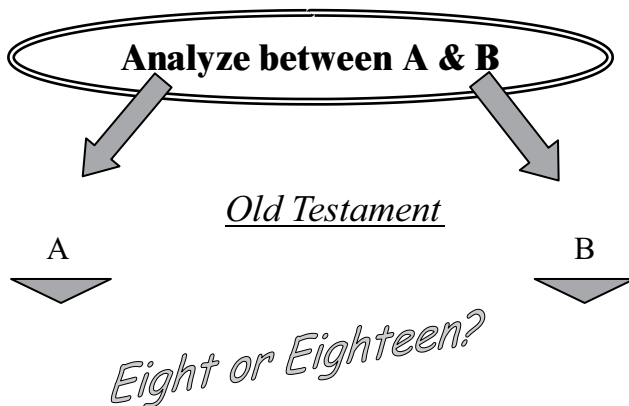

Luke 1:15

For he shall be great in the sight of the Lord, and shall drink neither wine nor strong drink.

Comment

It is not possible for liquor to be prohibited and permitted at the same time! The only remaining alternative is, the subject about the 'reasons due to variances' in the Bible. These variances have unfortunately come about as a result of misinterpretation of the scriptures by the scribes especially during the period of translation from Greek into other languages. More convincing examples of these variances in the Bible are shown on the following pages, both from the Old Testament as well as from the New Testament. Again, you may analyze and judge for yourself the contradictions shown:

II Chronicles 36:9

Jehoiachin was eight years old when he began to reign, ...

II Kings 24:8

Jehoiachin was eighteen years old when he began to reign, ...

Mathew 10:10

Don't even carry a duffle bag with extra clothes and shoes or even a walking stick...

Mark 6:8

He told them to take nothing with them, except their walking sticks...

Here are more examples of further variations in the Bible⁴:

- II Samuel 24:13 contradicts I Chronicles 21:11
- Numbers 4:3 contradicts Numbers 8:24
- Mark 16:2 contradicts John 20:1
- Luke 23:26 contradicts John 19:16

Comment

Anyone who tries reconciling between the statements concerning Jehoichin being eight or eighteen when beginning to reign would fail considerably. Thus it should follow that, as in the numbers ‘eight’ and ‘eighteen’, there had been an error in either one of the two gospels, similarly the chances of errors existing in words such as ‘do’ and ‘do not’ in the Bible are also highly possible as in the case of alcohol as well.

Likewise ‘with’ a walking stick or ‘without’. One might argue that what major difference does one or two letters make to the Bible. I say, it reverses the command of God into the opposite, for example ‘Do not commit theft’ becomes ‘Do commit theft’.

Therefore this can be established beyond reasonable doubt that wine – an intoxicant – is not to be taken. But, unfortunately, the Christian scriptures have been literally corrupted with numerous contradictions. Who would take the prohibition seriously if Jesus  PEACE BE UPON HIM  himself has turned water into wine, allowing his followers to enjoy it?

⁴ Listed here are just four examples, there are hundreds such examples in the Bible.

Legalization of Alcohol

More questions than answers!

- The miracle of turning water into wine, it is only found in the Gospel of John, which consistently contradicts the other three gospels. This gospel was opposed as 'heretical' in the early church, while the other three Gospels were referred to as the Synoptic Gospels because the texts contained a similar treatment of Jesus's  life.

(The New Encyclopaedia Britannica Vol. 5 pg. 379)

- If the turning of water into wine had any authenticity, then why did Luke⁵ and Paul⁶, the so called followers of Jesus  prohibit the drinking of wine?
- The Gospel of John can never be given preference over Luke and Romans since it had only been written in 85 A.D according to Christian scholars, whereas Luke and Romans were written in 70 A.D and 56 A.D, both approximately 20 to 30 years before the Gospel of John was written?

Therefore one should ponder:

What has happened to the practice of abstaining from alcohol?

Why is it not practised today?

And who has maintained this practice today?

⁵ Luke 1:15

⁶ Romans 14:21

9. Females covering their hair in modesty in the Bible

The women around Jesus ☞ PEACE BE UPON HIM ☞ veiled themselves, which was also the practice of the women around the earlier prophets ☞ PEACE BE UPON THEM ☞. Their garments were loose and covered their bodies entirely including their hair, and sometimes even covering their faces due to extreme modesty and shyness in the presence of strange males.

Genesis 24:64-65

“And Rebekah lifted up her eyes, and when she saw Isaac, she alighted from the camel, and said to the servant, ‘who is the man yonder, walking in the field to meet us?’” The servant said, ‘It is my master.’ So she took her veil and covered herself.”

Comment

Rebekah covering her head in the presence of a strange male was due to her excessive modesty and shyness. This practice is still witnessed by extremely modest females today, who are in actual fact portraying an example from the Bible.

Paul himself criticizes women unveiling their hair

1 Corinthians 11:5

Paul wrote in his first book to the Corinthians 11:5;

“But any woman who prays or prophesieth with her head unveiled dishonours her head it is the same as if her head were shaven.”

1 Corinthians 11: 6

“For a women will not veil herself, then she should cut-off her hair; but if it is disgraceful for a woman to be shorn or shaven, let she wear her veil”.

Therefore one should ponder:

What has happened to this practice of covering their modesty?

Why is it not practised today?

And who has maintained this practice today?

10. Greeting with 'Peace' in the Bible

Those around Jesus ☞PEACE BE/ UPON HIM☞, including Jesus ☞PEACE BE/ UPON HIM☞, greeted each other with 'peace' in their everyday life.

John 20:19

“Jesus said to them again, Peace be with you”.

1 Samuel 25:6

“David instructed emissaries whom he sent to Nabal: “And thus you shall salute him: Peace be to you...”

Therefore one should ponder:

What has happened to this practice of greeting in peace?

Why is it not practised today?

And who has maintained its practice today?

11. Prohibition of interest in the Bible

Interest here refers to borrowing money on condition of additional repayment. This is known as interest or usury, which was prohibited in the Old Testament.

Deuteronomy 23:19

“You shall not lend upon interest to your brother, interest on money, interest upon victuals, interest on anything that is lent for interest”.

Therefore one should ponder:

What has happened to this practice of prohibition of interest?

Why is it not practised today?

And who has maintained its prohibition today?

12. Polygamy in the Bible

Polygamy means to marry more than one woman at one time. This was practised by many prophets.

Genesis 16:3

“So after Abram had dwelt ten years in the land of Canaan, Sarai, Abram’s wife, took Hagar the Egyptian, her maid, and gave her to Abram her husband as a wife”.

1 Samuel 27:3

“And David dwelt with Achish at Gat, he and his man, every man with his household, and David with his two wives...”.

Further references of polygamy in the Bible:

- 1 Kings 11:3
- 2 Chronicles 11:21
- Deuteronomy 21:15-16
- Leviticus 18:18

Comment

There is no record of Jesus ☸^{PEACE BE UPON HIM} opposing polygamy. If he did so, it would have meant that he condemned the practice of the prophets before him.

Polygamy refuted by Bible Scholar

According to Father Eugene Hillman in his book 'Polygamy Reconsidered' clarifies; “Nowhere in the New Testament is there any explicit commandment that marriage should be monogamous”. He further stressed the fact that the Church in Rome banned polygamy in order to conform to Greco-Roman culture, which prescribed only one wife but did not appose prostitution. In fact it allowed the immoral practice instead.

Therefore one should ponder:

What has happened to the practice of polygamy?

Why is it not practised today?

And who has maintained this practice today?

Now, let us look all around us, and see, who in the world today upholds the teachings of the Bible? We have the answer!

The Faith which upholds the teachings of the Bible

Islam !

Muslims claim to follow the teachings of Prophet Jesus ﷺ as well as the divine prophets before him. Let us ponder over their claim. We have already discussed the subjects of Jesus's ﷺ practises which we will now compare with the claims of Muslims. Thus, the Qur'an agrees to the aforesaid Biblical practises, which are as follows:

1. Oneness of God in the Qur'an

God says: "There is no God but I, so worship me".

Chapter 21: Verse 25

2. Prostration in worship in the Qur'an

God says: "You see them bowing and falling down prostrate (in prayer) seeking bounty from God and His good pleasure. Their mark (of prostration) is on their faces (forehead) from the traces of prostration".

Chapter 48: Verse 29

3. Compulsory charity in the Qur'an

God says: "They ask You (O Muhammad) what they should spend. say: whatever You spend of good must be for parents and kindred and orphans and the poor and the wayfarers, and whatever You do of good deeds, Truly, God knows it well."

Chapter 2: Verse 215

4. Fasting in the Qur'an

God says: "O you who believe, fasting is prescribed for you as it was prescribed for those before you, in order that you may become pious".⁷

Chapter 2: Verse 83

5. Ablution in the Qur'an

God says: "O you who believe, when you intend to pray, wash your faces and forearms up to the elbows wipe your heads and wash your feet up to the ankles".

Chapter 5: Verse 6

⁷ Muslims are commanded to fast once a year in the Holy month of Ramadaan. They abstain from food, drink, and sexual relationship with their spouses between sunrise to sunset.

6. Circumcision in the Hadeeth

Prophet Muhammad ﷺ has said:

“There are five practices which constitute the prophetic way; circumcision, shaving pubic hair and underarm hair, clipping fingernails and toenails, and trimming the moustache.”⁸

Book of Bukhari⁹

7. Prohibition of pork in the Qur'an

God says: “Forbidden to you (for food) are dead animals¹⁰, blood, the flesh of swine, and that on which God's name has not been mentioned while slaughtering...”.

Chapter 5: Verse 3

8. Prohibition of alcohol in the Qur'an

God says: “O you who believe, intoxicants, gambling, sacrificial altars, and divination are an abomination of Satan's handiwork, so avoid them in order to be successful”.

Chapter 5: Verse 90

⁸ Muslims males up to this day undergo circumcision. It is preferably done on the 8th day after birth, as advised by Prophet Muhammad ﷺ, whom as we know came as a successor to Jesus.

⁹ ‘Bukhari’ – Name of the most authentic book which contains the prophetic sayings of Muhammad ﷺ.

¹⁰ Animals like cattle and sheep which have died in any other way besides being slaughtered.

9. Females covering their hair in the Qur'an

God says: "Tell the believing women to lower their gaze and protect their private parts and not to expose their adornment, except only what normally shows and to draw their head scarves over their bosoms..."¹¹

Chapter 24: Verse 31

10. Greetings in the Qur'an

God says: "When those who believe in my signs come to you, greet them: Peace be upon you".¹² (As-Salaamu alaikum)

Chapter 6: Verse 54

11. Prohibition of interest in the Qur'an

God says: "O you who believe, fear God and give up what interest remains due to you, if you are really believers".

Chapter 2: Verse 278

12. Polygamy in the Qur'an

God says: "Marry of the women that please you, two, three, or four. But if you fear that you will not be able to deal justly, then (marry only) one...".

Chapter 4: verse 3

¹¹ God has given the reason for veiling in the Qur'an that it distinguishes the believing women known for their modesty by covering themselves with their cloaks and thus will not be molested."

¹² Muslims greet one another with the Arabic greeting 'As-Salaamu alaikum' translated as 'peace be upon you'. Jesus too uses the same words of greetings. When greeted, a Muslim replies, 'Wa-alay-kumus-salaam'- "And peace be upon you too".

Question & Answers on Islam

Q. If Muslims claim to have retained and kept-up to the practices of Jesus ﷺ as proven in this book, then who is Jesus ﷺ according to them?

A. Jesus ﷺ was one of the mightiest prophets of God. He was born miraculously without a father or any male intervention. He was neither the begotten son, nor part of the divinity of God. He preached the worship of One God, and not the trinity. He also proclaimed himself as the messenger of God, and not the son of God. He did not die for the sins of anyone. He was neither crucified, nor killed or resurrected; but he was raised to God.

Q. What was Jesus's ﷺ manner of worship?

A. As it is known from this book that Jesus ﷺ worshipped God in the manner Muslims worship God. Therefore, worship in Islam still remains the same as it was done at the time of Jesus ﷺ. That is why Muslims today say that they are the spiritual inheritors of Jesus's ﷺ faith, and not today's Christians. One may also say that the true followers of Jesus ﷺ in the past are the Muslims of today. Christians today are linked to Jesus ﷺ by name only, and Muslims today are linked to Jesus ﷺ by faith as well.

Q. If Muslims claim to be true followers of Jesus ﷺ, then what went wrong with Christianity?

A. After the era of Jesus ﷺ, there had been those fortunate ones who kept to his original teachings. Thereafter, upon the coming of Muhammad ﷺ, these very same people identified Muhammad's ﷺ message and received it with open arms. The commonalities that existed in the lives of these two great prophets also contributed towards people's conviction in Muhammad ﷺ. They did it because Muhammad ﷺ was a prophesied prophet of the Gospel of Jesus ﷺ,¹³ like Jesus ﷺ was prophesied by Moses ﷺ.

At the coming of Prophet Muhammad ﷺ, those who did not believe in him strayed from the original teachings of Jesus ﷺ. Their differences had led to the formation of different churches and Bibles all over the world. The very existence of these different churches and Bibles is sufficient proof for Christians to know that their religion is a diversion from its original teachings. Therefore Muslims claim that the true teachings of all the prophets are to be found in Islam.

Q. If Muslims claim to be true followers of Jesus ﷺ, then why aren't they called Christians?

A. Nowhere in the Bible did Jesus ﷺ refer to himself as a Christian. In fact, the word 'Christian' according to the Bible were used for the Christians only in 43 A.D, and that was after Jesus ﷺ was raised to the heavens.

This word was used for the first time by the pagan Jews in Antioch, in 43 (A.D). This is proven from Acts 11:26 in the Bible as follows: "And the disciples were called Christians first in Antioch".¹⁴

Q. Who is Jesus in relation to Moses and Muhammad ﷺ?

Jesus ﷺ preached the very same message of Moses ﷺ. He was the prophesied prophet of the Old Testament, and with his coming, the followers of Moses ﷺ were required to follow him. Jesus ﷺ also gave his followers the glad tidings of another messenger to come after him who shall be called Muhammad ﷺ.

¹⁴ They were later called Christians for the second time in Acts 26:28 and for the third time in I Peter 4:16. In total, the word 'Christian' has been used only three times in the New Testament of the Bible, but of course, never in the life time of Jesus ﷺ.

The followers of each prophet were all expected to follow the prophesied prophets of their scriptures because each prophet claimed to have come to fulfil the law of the former prophets and not to abolish them (Mathew 5:17-18).

Q. Do Muslims believe in the Gospel of Jesus ﷺ?

A. Yes, all Muslims believe in the Gospel revealed to Jesus ﷺ, if they don't, then they are not Muslims. The gospel perspective according to Matthew, Mark, Luke and John are not exact replica of the original Gospel of Jesus¹⁵. There are however passages from the present gospels which reflects the teachings of the Gospel of Jesus ﷺ. However, Muslims accept those passages which the Qur'an confirms. Likewise, Muslims also believe in the original Old Testament given to Moses which they refer to as the Torah.

Q. What does 'Islam' mean?

Islam means 'submission' to the ONE & ONLY God, The Creator. Submission is the translation of the word 'Islam' in Arabic. The word Islam also means 'peace'. In short, Islam means, acquiring peace by submitting yourself to the will of One God.

¹⁵ Known as the Injeel

Q. Do Muslims worship Muhammad ﷺ?

A. No, Muslims worship God alone Who is The Creator, and that Muhammad ﷺ is none other than just a prophet of God who preached to mankind the worship of One God.

Q. Did Muhammad ﷺ come to preach a new religion?

A. Like Jesus ﷺ did not come to preach a new religion, Muhammad ﷺ too did not come to preach a new religion. Instead, he came to revive the message Jesus ﷺ, which was tempered with and changed¹⁶ by those after Jesus ﷺ. Thus it is therefore more than necessary for the people to follow the guidance of Islam preached by Muhammad ﷺ, if they wish to keep close to God and His Prophet, Jesus ﷺ.

Q. Who is ‘Allah’?

A. Allah is the name of the same One and Only God.

Q. What is the most fundamental teaching of Islam?

A. The most fundamental teaching of Islam is monotheism i.e. to believe in the One God who alone deserves to be worshipped.

Q. What is the Qur'an?

A. The Qur'an is the word of God revealed to Muhammad ﷺ, which is the only authentic scripture in its original Arabic and not a letter has been added to or deleted from, for over 1400 years.

Q. According to Islam which is the way to salvation?

A. According to Islam, the only way to salvation is:-

Firstly to believe in the One and Only God, and that Jesus was a prophet of God, and Muhammad being the last Prophet of God.

Secondly, it is to perform good deeds, which is to offer a 'self-sacrifice'¹⁷ to God by striving to perform good deeds for the pleasure of God¹⁸. If we have wronged in our life being unable to establish good deeds in totality, then the requirement for salvation is offering a sacrifice of repentance to God for sinning. This is by repenting to Him sincerely and asking Him for forgiveness, as well as having sincere regret from the core of our hearts over the sins we have committed.

¹⁷ A self-sacrifice is a sacrifice required from an individual who has broken the law by sinning.

¹⁸ The self sacrifice of performing good deeds includes giving of charity, fasting, praying, taking care of orphans etc. Any good action, though they may be a performance of rituals are all under the category of self sacrifice because it is a struggle of personal self.

Conclusion

After reading this booklet, you may be in a fair position to deduce that it is only Islam that has retained and upheld the practices of Jesus ﷺ. You may have even understood that Islam has not come as a new religion, rather as the self same religion of monotheism preached by Jesus ﷺ, and all previous prophets ﷺ before him.

Embracing Islam is not a question of whether to choose between Muhammad and Jesus ﷺ, but rather to gain proximity to the way of Jesus ﷺ, as illustrated by Muhammad ﷺ, who came as a saviour to retain the real message of Jesus ﷺ.

I pray to God that He makes this publication a means of forgiveness for my shortcomings, as well as a source of guidance for the world to be able to recognize the truth. I therefore invite every person to read the Holy Qur'an which is:-

- The word of God (in its literal sense¹⁹, because it was revealed from God word for word, letter for letter in the way that God wanted it to be).
- Free from contradictions.
- The Qur'an answers the questions concerning the realities of life, the Hereafter, the concept of God.
- The only book which is preserved by being memorized in its entirety by thousands of people throughout the world from the time it was revealed. It is even memorized by children.
- It is still preserved in its original text, Arabic.
- Its translations are free from deletions, additions, alterations of verses.
- Compatible to science.
- Preserved in its original language, Arabic without even the slightest change in it.
- Invites all to the common religion of monotheism which existed at every generation.

¹⁹ Unlike when Christians say 'word of God' in its figurative sense

I have read the Book and i agree to its message

Now what to do?

Say the Declaration of faith
& save yourself from eternal hell fire

I bear witness that there is Only One God who is worthy of worship & Prophet Muhammad (PEACE BE UPON HIM) is Allah's last servant & messenger (After Prophet Jesus (PEACE BE UPON HIM))
